God's route might not seem safe, but the destination is sure.

- What stood out to you this week?
- Was there anything confusing or troubling?
- Did anything make you think differently about God?
- How might your answers above change the way we live?

Read: Numbers 14:24, 34-35, Joshua 14:12-13

- What has been interrupted for you this year?
- What do you feel it is like to have God as an ally? How about as an enemy?
- Do you feel like sin always has consequences? Why or why not?
- What does it take for you to be like Caleb and Joshua, instead of the other 10 spies?
- Caleb's choices didn't keep the rest of the Israelites from dying in the wilderness. Did his choice still matter? Why or why not?
- When our journeys are interrupted, whether by sin or something else, how can we hold on to the confidence that the destination God wants for us is stable and good?

Prayer: Almighty God, Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, grant, we pray, that we might be grounded and settled in your truth by the coming of your Holy Spirit into our hearts. What we do not know, reveal to us; what is lacking within us, make complete; that which we do not know, confirm in us; and keep us blameless in your service through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.
