Your identity doesn't have to change even if your circumstances do.

What are some identities that you've had in your life? What are some you have now?

Read: Daniel 1:1-7

- There is so much going on in this scene, and all of it brutally painful. Where do you see God in this scene?
- Last week Frank said that God works through world leaders – even pagan kings like Nebuchadnezzar. Do you find that troubling? Why or why not?
- Are there instances where you've seen God at work in your life through unlikely people? Share that with your group.

Read: Daniel 1:21

- Daniel was faithful to God throughout 66 years, serving seven different emperors. As you've read Daniel this week, what are some instances where you saw Daniel's faithfulness?
- What can you learn from Daniel's example?

Apply: Frank talked about three kinds of identity. Which of these do you identify with?

- Saturation identity – your identity is wrapped up in something that is external to your core. A hobby. An occupation. A leisure pursuit.
- Situation identity – your identity changes based on who you're with or where you're at.
- Salvation identity – your core identity is based in who God says you are: his child, a follower of Jesus.

Prayer: Pray that God will help you find contentment in your core identity as His child.
