- What's one idea from the message that stood out to you? Why do you think it grabbed you?
- Read Psalm 1.
- Do you feel blessed? What does it mean to you to be blessed?
- When those living in sin seem to be the ones receiving blessings, how do you handle that, or process that?
- How can we interact with the mockers, sinners, and wicked without “sitting in the company of” them, as verse 1 warns against?
- Do you find yourself delighting in the law of the Lord? Why or why not?
- Verse 3 ends by saying that whatever the blessed do, prospers. Do you feel like that is accurate? Why or why not?
- Do you feel like you have the stability of being a tree, blessed by God, or do you feel more like chaff being blown away? Why?
- What is the comfort that you find in this Psalm?
- Walter presented the idea that we are living at a time where the Kingdom of God is here, but is also yet to come. Do you feel like you live in a way that represents the Kingdom being here? Why or why not?
