Everyone worships something or someone. Choose well.

“Every person’s checkbook is a theological document. It tells you who and what they worship.” – Billy Graham

“So are your social media history and Google searches.” – Frank Weller

Time for some transparency. Who or what do you worship?

Read: Deuteronomy 9:1-6

- Why did Moses instruct Joshua and the Israelites to destroy the Canaanites?
- Leviticus 18 lists the “detestable sins” of the Canaanites. God determined to destroy these nations because of their wickedness (Lev. 18:24-26). Are there parallels between our world and theirs? Is that troubling? Why or why not?

Read: Joshua 1:6-9

- God’s command to Joshua was challenging. It required three things: strength, courage and a commitment to God’s Word. Why are these so important?
- Verse 9 ends with a promise. How can we take strength from that promise?

Read: Joshua 24:14-15

- Frank said, “Everyone worships something or someone. We are incurably religious. We are wired for worship.” How have you seen that to be true?
- What is required for you to choose God above instead of worshipping something or someone else?

Prayer: Ask God to reveal the lesser gods in your life that compete for your worship, and give you the resolve necessary to reject them completely.
