Signs are meant to be seen.

- Have you ever had an experience like the one Walter shared on Sunday: driving through a winter storm in which the signs were all covered with snow? What was that like?
- Are you naturally trusting or naturally skeptical of other people?

Read: John 9:1-5

- How do you feel about the disciple's assumption that this man's blindness was the result of sin? Can you come up with any Scriptural support for their perspective?

Read: John 9:6-7

- Put yourself in this man's shoes. What do you think you would've felt?

Read: John 9:8-12

- When have you reacted to news about God's action in ways that were similar to these people's reactions?

Read: John 9:13-25

- How does John portray the Pharisees here? How do they contrast with the healed man?

Read: John 9:35-41

- What's your take on Jesus' teaching in this section?
- On Sunday, Walter mentioned 5 characteristics – identified by Jonathan Edwards – that are present in genuine acts of God. Share any you remember and discuss them.
- How can you be more humble and suspend judgement when it comes to reports of God's action in our world today?

Pray: Pray for your people to have opportunities to see God's and to recognize God's actions in their lives and in the lives of others around them.
