Main Point: iContact is no substitute for Eye Contact.

- What's one idea from the message that stood out to you? Why do you think it grabbed you?
- When did you get your first cell phone?
- Gossip and comments are no longer just spoken behind people's backs. Is this positive or negative? Why?
- Why is it easier to say things we shouldn't when we're not talking face-to-face with a person?

Read: Proverbs 11:27, 26:17-27.

- Do you have examples of people who are surrounded by positive or negative people on social media because of how they handle themselves online?
- Why is eye contact important in discussions?
- Since eye contact is important, how do you handle discussions or quarrels where eye contact is not an option?
- How do you balance blocking toxic influences with not getting tunnel-vision on your social media and being able to make a difference?
- Are we called to be civil in all conversations? Why or why not?
- How can you be a positive influence on social media this week?

Prayer: Pray that you handle your conversations with others appropriately.
