You Forgive Me (6.21.20)

S Scripture
O Observation
A Application
P Prayer

Forgiveness is rooted in God, but blossoms in you.

- What's one thing that stood out to you this week? Why do you think it grabbed you?
- Who are some of your favorite heroes and villains in stories? Why?
- When you view heroes and villains as people with both good and bad qualities, how does that change the way you see them?

Read: Psalm 51

- How do you typically respond when someone points out a sin you committed?
- Frank points out that Bathsheba's role is potentially uncertain. Does her role matter? Why or why not? What does your answer mean for when you make mistakes involving other people?
- What constitutes a good apology? Why?
- When you are given forgiveness, what is your typical response?
- Can we earn forgiveness? Why or why not?

Prayer: Pray for forgiveness without any qualifiers.
