Jesus is what you're searching for.

- What did you think of Dan's story on Sunday? Have you interacted with the Batdorff family in any way?

Read: Acts 16:16-18

- What does this situation teach us about the power of God?

Read: Acts 16:19-21

- How do you understand the discrepancy between what got Paul and Silas arrested, and what they were charged with before the city officials?

Read: Acts 16:22-24

- What is your general reaction when you face hardship? What hardships have you faced?

Read: Acts 16:25-29

- Did you catch verse 25? What were the other prisoners doing?
- What can you do to be a witness to others, even in the face of severe hardship?

Read Acts 16:30-34

- The Philippian jailer and his entire family found what they were searching for, and came to faith in Jesus that night.
 - In what ways do you see people searching for hope/salvation/meaning?
 - In what ways does Jesus satisfy all of those things, and more?

Prayer: Pray that God will enable the members of your group to boldly proclaim Christ by the way they act and speak – just as Paul and Silas did.
